

*Thākuraḷī, It's the End of the Day,
and I Want to Thank You!

Thākuraḷī, this morning I entrusted myself and my day to You.

You took my words as real — and accepted them.

And what an incredibly blissful and busy day it's been.

— You showed me what it really means to be Your servant —AMAZING!

Thank You for being with me through the day.

And for keeping me completely in tune with Your plan.

This has really strengthened my faith in You — and in me!

— And increased my desire to be forever Your servant.

Thākuraḷī, how can I come closer to You?

How can I best see Your plan for me in my daily life?

Please help me — I really do want to serve You.

— Please draw me ever closer to You in love.

Yes, the world goes on, and I still have many things to do.

But right now it's just You and me — and that's wonderful!

I am feeling so grateful and satisfied to be Your servant

— Please empower me to live every day just for You!

— Thank You —
